WHEREAS, the Town of Narragansett needs to take additional measures to limit the spread of COVID-19;

WHEREAS, Rhode Island General Laws §§ 30-15-12 and 30-15-13, as well as the Town of Narragansett Code of Ordinances and Home Rule Charter § 2-1-7 and §2-1-9, permit the Town Council to declare a state of emergency for the purpose of, among other things: providing for the cooperation in epidemic prevention, preparedness, response and recovery; preparing for emergency health threats that require the exercise of extraordinary governmental functions; providing the Town with the ability to respond rapidly and effectively to potential or actual public health emergencies; and reducing loss of life;

WHEREAS, Rhode Island General Laws § 30-15-9(4) and §30-15-12(b), as well as the Town of Narragansett Code of Ordinances and Home Rule Charter § 2-1-7 and § 2-1-9, permit the Town Council to suspend the provisions of any statute, regulation, or requirement prescribing the procedures for the conduct of Town business, or the orders, rules, regulations of any Town department, board, or agency, if strict compliance with the provisions of any statute, order, rule or regulation would in any way prevent, hinder or delay necessary action in coping with this emergency; and

WHEREAS, Rhode Island General Laws §§ 30-15-9(e)(3) and (7), and 30-15-12(b), as well as the Town of Narragansett Code of Ordinances and Home Rule Charter § 2-1-7 and § 2-1-9, permit the Town Council to transfer the direction, personnel, or functions of Town departments and agencies or units thereof for the purpose of performing or facilitating emergency services; to control ingress and egress to and from high risk areas, the movement of persons within the area, and the occupancy of premises therein; and to take appropriate measures for the protection of health, safety, and welfare of the people of the Town and to prevent or minimize the loss of life.

NOW, THEREFORE, we, the Narragansett Town Council, by virtue of the authority vested in our body as the Town Council of the Town of Narragansett, pursuant to the Rhode Island General Laws and the Town of Narragansett Code of Ordinances and Home Rule Charter, including but not limited to Title 30, Chapter 15 of the General Laws and Chapter § 2-1-7 and § 2-1-9 of the Town of Narragansett Code of Ordinances and Home Rule Charter, do hereby order and direct the following:

- 1. A state of emergency is hereby declared for the Town of Narragansett due to the dangers to health and life posed by COVID-19, and the Town's disaster emergency plan is hereby activated.
- 2. The Town Emergency Management Agency Director is directed to activate the Town's emergency operations center and all necessary Town emergency response plans, policies, compacts, and agreements, to create and establish mobile support units, and to activate and deploy disaster response teams and disaster response workers to perform disaster response services.
- 3. All Town departments, agencies, or quasi-municipal agencies and boards and commissions performing executive functions shall cooperate fully with the Rhode Island Emergency Management Agency (RIEMA) and Narragansett Emergency Management Agency in all matters concerning this Order. Efforts to provide emergency disaster relief to the Town of Narragansett should be coordinated by and through the Narragansett Emergency Management Agency.

4. All entertainment licenses and special event permits, whether for night clubs, concerts, live music, or other events, are hereby revoked during the period of this state of emergency. The Town will not be issuing any entertainment licenses or special event permits during the period of this state of emergency.
5. Bars, restaurants or establishments within the borders of the Town that offer food or drink shall not permit on premises consumption of food or drink, effective at 12:00 AM on March 17, 2020; provided that such establishments may continue to offer food and non-alcoholic beverages for takeout and delivery in accordance with social distancing protocols and guidance set forth by RIDOH, in accordance with Executive Order 20-04 dated March 16, 2020.
6. Gatherings of 25 people or more are prohibited in Rhode Island. Gatherings subject to this Order include, but are not limited to, community, civic, leisure, or faith based events, sporting events with spectators, concerts, conventions, fundraisers, parades, fairs, festivals, and any other similar activity that brings together 25 or more people at the same time, in accordance with Executive Order 20-04 dated March 16, 2020.
7. Town officials are directed to cancel all non-essential official Town meetings, limit the travel of Town employees, and postpone all public events during the period of this state emergency.
8. All Town offices and operations shall otherwise remain open until further notice and shall continue to otherwise operate in their ordinary course of business.
9. Pursuant to the emergency powers granted by the Rhode Island General Laws, and any other applicable provisions of state or local law, I shall from time to time issue additional directives, orders, and recommendations as circumstances require, either written or verbal.
10. Nothing in this Executive Order shall constrain the duties and powers of the Town, the Town Manager, the Town Council, or the Emergency Management Agency authorized by Title 30, Chapter 15 of the General Laws and the Town of Narragansett Code of Ordinances and Home Rule Charter § 2-1-7 and § 2-1-9 et seq.
11. This Executive Order shall take effect immediately and remain in full force and effect through March 30, 2020 in accordance with the Executive Orders (20-02, 20-3, and 20-04) issued by the Honorable Governor Gina Raimondo.

So Ordered:

 March 16, 2020

Matthew M. Mammix
Narragansett Town Council President
