

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Narragansett, RI - (October 2, 2025): The Narragansett Community Choice Electricity program is announcing new winter electricity supply prices to go into effect beginning with the November 2025 meter read. The program’s winter pricing for the default electricity option is 10% less than last winter and will still offer cleaner electricity and cost savings compared to RI Energy’s Last Resort Service. The new prices will be fixed for six months through customers’ May 2026 meter read. Current participants do not need to take any action to remain in the program and receive the new pricing for the product in which they are currently enrolled.

The Town is pleased to have delivered on the program’s goals of offering residents and businesses cleaner electricity, at affordable prices. The program’s residential prices for the default product remains lower than RI Energy’s Last Resort Service prices, while adding 5% additional renewable energy. The additional renewable energy is sourced entirely from local Rhode Island projects, including the Narragansett Bay Commission wind turbines at Fields Point in Providence, solar in West Greenwich and additional wind turbines in Coventry.

The table below shows the prices for Residential customers compared to RI Energy. Prices for Commercial and Industrial customers can be found on the Program website: NarragansettCommunityChoiceElectricity.com.

The Narragansett Community Choice Electricity Program cannot guarantee savings compared to Rhode Island Energy Last Resort Service for the duration of the Program pricing because future Last Resort Service prices are unknown.

Narragansett is part of a group of seven municipalities who shared in launching the first municipal aggregation programs in Rhode Island. Barrington, Central Falls, Narragansett, Newport, Portsmouth, Providence, and South Kingstown are all working with Good Energy as their consultant and share a common electricity supplier and pricing.

The voluntary renewable energy content in the program's standard and optional products comes from projects that qualify as RI New and makes a sizable impact on the Town's carbon footprint. Narragansett participants annually purchase more than 2647 megawatt-hours of voluntary renewable energy, equivalent to displacing over 1.8 million pounds of carbon dioxide emissions.

This is a Town-operated program open to all Narragansett residents and businesses. To join, complete the enrollment form on the program website: NarragansettCommunityChoiceElectricity.com or call the program's supplier, NextEra Energy Services Rhode Island, at (877) 323-2778. Participants may leave the program at any time without fees or penalties.
